

calling all salespeople! © 2003

Since 2003, JMA Communication has fully established itself as the foremost recruiter of people within the Telecoms Sales Industry.

From Field Sales to Sales Director, we have delivered across the UK, in Mobile, Fixed, Voice and Data. During 2004, our CRM system reached maturity, clients and candidates exchanged places, and we grew our sales team and placement rates; all as a result of accelerating levels of market demand.

Client or candidate; there seem to be hundreds of sales recruitment agencies to choose from.

Most agencies split their focus across many industries...

Other agencies split their focus across engineering jobs as well...

Yet our commitment to Telecoms Sales is absolute!

To access the most focussed network of sales people and decision makers in the Telecoms Sales industry - please call us today!

We have received a 50% uplift in vacancies for sales professionals to commence work in Q105. To secure your next career opportunity, please contact your sector team leader below!
